

Table of Contents

About this Resource	5
Introduction: What has ICT to offer English?	6
0.1. When and how to use ICT	6
0.2. Barriers and enablers to teachers' use of ICT	8
0.3. Advantages to pupils of ICT in English	10
0.4. Advantages to teachers of ICT in English	11
0.5. Potential classroom problems and solutions	12
0.6. Common word processing errors	14
1. Word Skills	15
1.1. Basic skills	17
1.2. Drafting and editing	18
1.3. Drag and drop text	19
1.4. Undo and save	23
1.5. Cut and paste, copy and paste, clipboard and scrapbook	25
1.6. Highlighting	29
1.7. Annotation/insert comment	30
1.8. Hyperlinks	32
1.9. Animated text	34
1.10. Find and replace	35
1.11. Thesaurus	37
1.12. Quotation databases or spreadsheets in Word	39
1.13. Outline view and headings	41
1.14. Changing the order	45
1.15. Spell check	48
1.16. Grammar checking	51
1.17. Readability levels	54
1.18. Auto summarise	57
1.19. Proofreading	59
1.20. Cooperative/collaborative writing	61
1.21. Track changes	64
1.22. Developing Tray	67
1.23. Typography and presentation	69
1.24. Combining text sources – synthesis	72

2. English Skills	76
2.1. Arranging and sorting words in a text.....	76
2.2. Combating plagiarism	80
2.3. Experiments in creative writing	82
2.4. Structured and non-linear narratives – Simon’s Night Fright.....	84
2.5 Creating similes and metaphors	88
2.6. Synthesising information from a variety of sources.....	90
3. Longer English Projects using ICT	94
3.1. Compiling a portfolio	94
3.2. Hello, Year 7!	96
3.3. Inventions and discoveries – research methods	97
3.4. Newspaper day.....	100
3.5. Games and quests.....	104
4. Literature Texts	105
4.1. ‘Macbeth’ ~ William Shakespeare.....	106
4.2. ‘To Kill a Mockingbird’ ~ Harper Lee	107
4.3. ‘Of Mice and Men’ ~ John Steinbeck	111
5. Useful Websites	113

